We will put barricades up. Market is held rain or shine and we have no control over weather. You are booking at your own risk for inclement weather. Limited spaces available.

Advertising:

- This is a charity event, but we understand the importance of advertising. A portion of our fees are designated to properly promote the event with paid advertising. To help keep our fees the same, ensure you and the market are successful, vendors need to help spread the word on Social Media as well! We have posters and bag stuffer cards available, please share our social media posts, TAG us, invite your friends to attend on our event facebook page and we have a private vendor facebook group page where we have files you can add to your social media posts to say you will be at our market! By helping spread the word and attracting more people it encourages sales for you and more people attending the event. Please send photos thru facebook message or Instagram of you and your wares so we can help promote your business and wares & countdown to the event.

VENDOR EVENT INFORMATION:

- Market hours of operation are: 9am - 3pm. Vendors will remain set-up during operating hours and any activity outside of these hours is strictly prohibited without written approval. Friday Night Setup (if desired) is 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.; Saturday Morning Set up is from 7 - 9 a.m. Your booth setup must be completed by 9 am. You will maintain an attractive display and ensure all materials brought in by you and or your employees are removed upon vacating the premises. Vehicles are not permitted in the handicap zone. All vendors will set up and tear down in a swift and efficient manner, minimizing disruption to vehicle and pedestrian traffic as much as possible. Tear down to be completed by 5 pm.
- All proceeds raised from table rentals and admission will be donated to help support local area children with Type 1 diabetes to attend D-Camp. D-Camps are Type 1 diabetic kids camps run across the country to provide a safe camping adventure for children with Type 1 diabetes. It is staffed by all medical personnel and provides a place where children can feel normal, learn more about caring for their diabetes in a fun setting and be surrounded by other children who understand.

- To help better promote the event and raise funds: we provide social media giveaways leading up to the event to help attract more people and we have door raffles for all attendees to buy tickets.
- You are welcome to donate a prize item(s) or vendor bucks to be used in our social media marketing promotions or door raffles. Thank you in advance for helping to support our fundraising efforts and grow the market.
** Please ensure your business card is on the item(s) so we can help promote your business. **
- There are VERY limited electrical outlets available, so please specify if you require electrical, as these will be on a first come, first serve basis. We do not supply extension cords.
- Lunch/Coffee/Tea is available in the basement of the hall. We will have a special menu available for vendors with volunteers coming to get your order in the morning. You may order if you wish and we will have the food delivered to your booth. Food and beverages are not included in table rental.
- We reserve the right to place home businesses on a waiting list until a minimum 1 month prior and then we may contact the waiting list to fill any unsold booths. Home businesses will be in our basement area unless a table becomes available upstairs - 1 month prior to the event. Priority for upstairs is given to handmade & vintage vendors. Based on first come, first serve - paid bookings.
