

SCOTT K. TREES
Scott Trees Photography / Trees Media Group

In the world of International Equestrian Photography / Videography, for over four decades Scott Trees has received prominent recognition. His international client list reads like a “who’s who” of distinguished owners, breeders, trainers and publications throughout the world. His work has been published in a variety of international media and marketing venues. A winner of numerous awards for his talent, he was the featured artist at “Kentucky Horse Parks” prestigious International Museum of the Horse art gallery in the spring of 2009.

However, his business direction is not limited only to the world of equine subjects. Trees’ commercial photography and video services have also been commissioned by corporate clients such as McDonalds, Portfolio Insurance, Sears Roebuck, Bassett Furniture, and Shell Oil. An internationally prominent architectural firm, The EDSA Group, commissioned him to photograph numerous architectural projects throughout the Arabian Gulf.

His many years of experience in photography and video production combined with a solid understanding of their importance in marketing to a digital world, lead him to start Trees Media Group. Working with a combined team of professionals Trees Media develops the concepts and oversees implementation of content aware digital media for marketing and branding a product.

Noted for bringing an outside the box approach to his craft, Scott Trees has been integral in creating advertising images that were successful in branding his clients. He also had a significant impact on the importance of unique advertising images in the Equestrian world. In the process, he created some of the more iconic advertising photographs within the Arabian horse industry. He brings that same creative talent to the commercial projects that seek out his experience.

Based out of Granbury Texas, Scott spends much of his time traveling and servicing the needs of his clients. When not on assignment, Scott hosts a variety of photography and video workshops at international locations.

Scott is also a respected speaker, having been a keynote speaker for a variety of organizations. (references on request)
